Distributed: Yes No / Distributed by: Lt. Steve Myers

Type of Incident: Bank Robbery

Date and Time of Incident: October 22, 2008 @ 1:32pm

Location: 200 Westchester Drive-New Bridge bank

On October 22, 2008 at 1:32pm, High Point Police responded to an Armed Robbery Alarm at the New Bridge Bank located at 200 Westchester Drive. While officers were enroute, High Point Police Communications confirmed that this was an actual Bank Robbery. Upon making contact with the bank, a description was obtained on two suspects and the get-a-way vehicle. Shortly after the suspect information was broadcasted, Lt. Caldwell spotted the suspect vehicle on Westchester Drive. When officers stopped the vehicle, they discovered that the suspects had just been dropped off and were no longer in the car.

Detectives from both High Point and Thomasville continued the investigation and learned of a possible location of the two suspects. Thomasville Detectives returned to their jurisdiction and set up surveillance on the location. It didn't take long before the two showed up. When they did, they were quickly taken into custody without incident. The two suspects were identified as Kevin Clark Moore, W/M,23 of Thomasville and Terry Lynn Thomas, B/M,42 also of Thomasville.

Thomasville Detectives interviewed the two suspects and learned they were responsible for a bank robbery that took place in their jurisdiction earlier in the week.

High Point Detectives have charges pending against both Moore and Thomas for Common Law Robbery. The reason for Common Law and not Armed Robbery is because no weapons were present at the time of robbery. Once detectives obtain the warrants, they will be sent to the Davidson County Detention Center for service.
