Type of Incident: Bank Robbery

Date and Time of Incident: February 25, 2009 @ 9:11am

Location: 4006 Mendenhall Oaks Parkway

Officers responded to the Truliant Federal Credit Union in reference to an armed robbery that had just occurred. The suspect entered the business armed with a handgun and demanded money. The suspect was described as a B/M, about six feet tall, wearing a black hoodie sweatshirt, blue jeans, white tennis shoes and had on white rubber or cloth gloves. He was also wearing a black face mask and was armed with a black semi-automatic handgun.

The suspect made his getaway in an older model (1980s-1990s) dark blue or forest green Chevrolet Caprice, Oldsmobile or Buick with tinted windows and large chrome rims. The color of the vehicle also changes in the light. The vehicle was last seen heading down Mendenhall Oaks Parkway towards Premier Drive.

No one was injured in the robbery and an unknown amount of money was taken.

Update

The investigation into this robbery revealed that when the suspect started to drive away from the bank the dye pack exploded sending orange/reddish dye all over the suspect, his clothes and interior of the car. High Point Police Detectives are asking that if anyone has seen a person with the orange/reddish on them, their clothes or has seen the interior of a car with this color of dye on it, please call High Point Crimestoppers at 889-4000. Detectives have also expanded the vehicle search to include a Buick.
