Type of Incident: Eagle Scout Project

Date and Time of Incident: August 24, 2008 @ 3:00pm

Location: High Point Police Department

On August 24, 2008 the High Point Police Department's K-9 Corps was presented with a new and unique gift; a K-9 Obstacle Course. This gift was presented by seventeen year old Evan Gould who is working towards his Eagle Scout. Evan is a member of Troop 42 of Covenant United Methodist Church on Skeet Club Road. This project was one of Evan's final steps in becoming an Eagle Scout.

The Boy Scouts require of perspective Eagle Scouts a project that is community based. Not only did this project meet the requirements of the Boy Scouts, it was also badly needed by the Police Department. The old obstacle course was well worn and in need of constant repair.

This project took Evan close to two years from its inception to complete. After getting clearance from both the Boy Scouts and the Police Department, Evan was able to build the 14 stage obstacle course in two months.

The Police Department and especially the K-9 Corps, give Evan a hearty thanks for a job well done.
