Type of Incident: Traffic Accident, Fatality

Date and Time of Incident: June 10, 2009 at 3:43 am

Location: Railroad crossing on Hoskins near Gordon Street

Incident Narrative:

On Wednesday, June 10, 2009 at 3:43am, High Point police responded to an accident involving a train, automobile, and pedestrian at the crossing located on Hoskins near Gordon Street. Following the initial response, the on-call traffic unit was dispatched. The investigation, led by Officer T. Robertson, indicated that an automobile, which was operated by Danneil Davis, was initially stopped on the north side of the railroad tracks at the intersection of Hoskins and Gordon Street. As a westbound train approached the location, Mr. Davis backed his vehicle in a southerly direction and onto the railroad tracks. The train collided with the vehicle which in turn struck an unidentified black male pedestrian. The unidentified pedestrian was transported to Baptist Hospital, in critical condition, where he subsequently died as a result of his injuries. Mr. Davis has been charged with DWLR, inspection violation, obstructing the movement of a train, and a safe movement violation. The investigation continues and additional charges may be filed.
