Saturday, November 13, 2010
11:00am - 2:00pm

Event is free and open to the public

These groups have something in common:

- ◆ High Point Ravens Semi Pro Football Team
 - ◆ High Point Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta
 - ◆ EDOTT Reading Club

They are all supporters of the family and love to read!

Come out for our family literacy day event dressed as your favorite team or in team colors.

We will have special guests reading to the audience,
special drawings for prizes,
light snacks, crafts and much more.

Throw a couple of passes to the football players, make a book with your parents for later reading and win prizes.
There is something for everyone to enjoy.

Let's make reading enjoyable and exciting.
