The coach is responsible for his team's and spectators' actions. Spectators will be excluded if they are unable to conduct themselves in a manner displaying good sportsmanship. Beer, wine, ale, or drugs are prohibited at Parks & Recreation facilities.

Any Player who leaves his or her team bench or area of play out of frustration, disappointment, or disagreement with teammates, opposing team, or officials will not be allowed to re-enter the game.

IV. PROFANITY RULE

The Profanity Rule is a means to discourage players, coaches, and managers from saying words that are offensive to others. There are basically two types. The first is profanity directed at the officials or opposing players. This will result in a flagrant technical foul and immediate ejection from the game.

The second type is casual profanity, which is used by players to vent frustration. Example: A player misses a lay-up under his goal by himself. Obviously, he is upset and he lets out his favorite expletive that is heard by an official. The penalty for this type of profanity is one personal foul charged to the player. Second offense by the same player will result in a flagrant technical foul and ejection.

Profanity directed at an official from the bench area will be penalized with a technical foul/and or ejection.

V. PLAYING RULES

The 2011-2012 National High School Federation Basketball Rules will be used with the following exceptions:

- In case of a tie at the end of the second half, a 2-minute overtime period with a regulation clock will be used.
